ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Senator Charles S. Chase, of Whittingham, has decided to become a resident of Brattleboro and take up the practice of law there. His plan is to move to Brattleboro with his family as soon as possible after the adjournment of the Bennington county term of court.

The well known wholesale cigar and tobacco firms of O. C. Taylor & Co., Burlington, has been dissolved by the withdrawal of C. L. Soule, who has sold his holdings in the firm to J. S. Flint.
The business will be continued under the same firm name at the same location by Mr. Taylor and Mr. Flint.

E. Hudson Converse, of Charlotte, will leave New York Saturday for Alexandria, Egypt, to pass the remainder of the winter at the guest of Dr. and Mrs.
H. B. Hanson, formerly of Hinesburg, who are located at Feshan, a city eighty miles above Cairo on the Nile. Mr.
Converse will visit the lower Nile and Palestine, returning in May to Rome, to join friends from the United States with whom he will pass a portion of Europe and in the British Isles before returning home.

MARRIED TOO SOON.

Charge Preferred Against George Bumps, Alia George Alfred.

Burlington, Jan. 4.—George A. Bumps alias George Alfred, was arraigned in city court Wednesday upon complaint alleging that he had re-married within the period forbidden by statute. He waived examination and bail in his case was fixed at $500, in default of which he was committed to jail.

The complaint sets up that Bumps or Alfred married Ella Hiet and that she obtained a divorce from him in Russian county court, April 18, 1904. It is further alleged that on December 1, 1906, he was living unlawfully in the marriage relation with one Gertrude Donovan in Milton.

Addison County Agricultural Association Holds Annual Meeting.

Middlebury, Jan. 4.—The third annual meeting of the Addison County Agricultural society held in the opera house here Wednesday drew an attendance of over 300 members and invited guests. While past occasions of similar nature have proven successful the meeting today was a sincere acknowledgment of the effort of Col. S. H. Hiet, the general patron of the society, and the several hundred persons gathered to listen to the reports of the various officers came too in a measure to show their esteem for their worthy patron.

In the election of officers contrary to the usual precedent Judge John E.
Weeks was accorded a re-election as were also vice-presidents John A.
James of Westleybridge, Fred L. Hamilton of West Salisbury was re-elected as treasurer, C. L. Boutwell of Middlebury and his assistant, A. P. Rose of New Haven, R. H. Norman of Panton, A. K. Carr of Middlebury and A. W.
Foote of Cornwall were chosen to serve on the board of directors for three years.

The report of Treasurer Boutwell was doubtless the most exhaustive and interesting that has been presented for several decades. He gave comparisons of receipts and expenditures between the past year and the two preceding years. The total receipts for 1906 were $9,337.22 with disbursements of $8, 045.91. This gave an increase of $1, 291.31 in 1906. The present resources of the society aside from the fair ground equipment which is worth $20, 000 consist of a bank account balance of $1,565.86.

JOSIAH QUINCY BANKRUPT.

Petition Filed in Case of Boston Ex-Mayor.

Boston, Jan. 4.—A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday against ex-Mayor Josiah Quincy by M. F. Clarke, C. H. Wooster and George Warner, represented by G. F. Eldridge, as attorney, holding notes aggregating $2,700. Mr.
Quincy, in reply to inquiries, has furnished the following information:

"The action of the single judgment creditor, holding notes for several years and bearing my name but never used for the purpose for which they were made or issued or properly negotiated for value, has forced the filing of this petition.
While I have endeavored in every way to avoid or postpone such a proceeding, it is nonetheless for the best interests of all my creditors and of myself.
Through misplaced confidence in a former business associate, now deceased, I have for some years been under large liabilities on paper bearing my name and duly negotiated, but representing no value received by me.

"I must state this fact by way of explanation, and not as an excuse, for the situation in which I find myself, which has also resulted in part from serious mistakes of my own and from disappointments in connection with mining investments. The obligations now outstanding against me which I have personally incurred, and for which I have received value, are not large in amount.
I will endeavor to meet them later and am confident of my ability to do so.

"Since my return from Europe, three years ago, I have paid out considerable sums to creditors in an endeavor to meet the situation; my assets now remaining are of large value, and I have my total liabilities are about $150,000, of which about one-half represents a single claim held against me in New York and arising out of the failure of the Seventh National bank in 1901. I intend in the future to devote myself wholly to representing the interests of my clients, in which I have had more success than in my own business and financial connections."

THE HALL OF FAME.

Mayor E. Clay Timanus of Baltimore has officially announced that he will be a candidate for re-election next spring.

General Funston used to collect botanical specimens for the department of agriculture. He is an expert on the grasses of the northwest.

General Brugere, former minister of war of France, is expected to visit this country in the near future to make an inspection of American posts and study the organization and the methods of training the American soldier.

A. W. Converse of Windsor Locks, Vt., who has been postmaster there since 1898, except during the Cleveland term, is an enthusiastic collector and at one time owned 800 of the 600 Washington engravings as well as sixty-five "lives" of the Father of His Country.

A close friend of Senator Lodge is responsible for the statement that the Massachusetts statesman for years has received an income from his literary efforts far in excess of his salary as senator. He has written on more phases of American history than any other man in public life. His latest work is a book of essays.

Professor Edward S. Morse, the well known astronomer and author of "Mars and Its Mystery," is an authority on Japanese art as well as a Martian cannie. He is through Lowell's great telescope. He has been a professor in the Imperial university at Tokyo and is at present in charge of Japanese pottery at the Boston museum.

Henry Mitchell of Boston has been for forty years maker of the dies for the stamped envelopes issued by the government, with a brief intermission.
At one time a change of administration resulted in his being relieved. But he was not out long—only a few months —for it was soon discovered that nobody but Mitchell could properly make the dies needed by the government.

Sir Hiram Maxim, the famous inventor of guns and powder, does not nowadays look much the Maine Yankee he is. He impresses the beholder as being rather a fierce personage, white whiskered and his breast covered with decorations when special occasion calls for such display. For the last ten years and more Sir Hiram has devoted himself to attempts to solve the problem of aerial navigation.

Had Men of the West.

Searchers for real western color with which to illuminate their tales of the frontier have for some time been complaining that all the snap and ginger of the old life in the west had departed. To a certain extent this is true. The genuine Indians have nearly all followed the buffalo over the desert to the happy hunting grounds of the Great Spirit. The modern cowboy is less careless with his shooting iron and his branding iron than he was in the old days, but it is an error to believe that all of the picturesque de-vility which gave color to early days in the west has been eliminated. The bad man with the gun out on the fringe of civilization is fully as bad as his predecessor of earlier years—Portland Oregonian.

The "Boys" of America.

A London writer calls General Miles the "Boys" of America. In describing the famous soldier this writer says:
"Despite his valorous record and his sixty-seven years he is a Beau Brummel. With his perfectly fitting frock coat, gray tie, gray suede gloves, tan spats, tan waistcoat and gleaming patent leathers, this grizzled campaigner could give points to any Burlington Bertie. He is remarkably handsome too. With his Roman nose and pointed chin, his upturned eyebrows and mustache and his piercing eyes, he reminds one of an eagle soaring in its prey from afar. It is a soldier's face, and the man's whole aspect is militarism personified."
